Call to Order	Wizer called the meeting to order.
Approval of Minutes	Stephenson moved to approve. Meyer seconded. Motion was approved.
Public Comments
Consent Agenda	Financials update provided by Mitchel. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We did send a few individuals to the Iowa Library Association workshop, so the travel budget was a bit larger. • Library book materials are moving ahead, but not as far ahead as they have been in the past.
Policy/Procedure Review	Library Board of Trustees Bylaws presented by Mitchel. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No changes suggested by Mitchel. • Trustees had the chance to suggest changes. All have reviewed and had no changes. • Sam to update “last reviewed” date to reflect February 2023.
Strategic Plan
Director’s Report	Sam Mitchel presented his report. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We’ve been working on a meeting room policy. This may be under the city’s umbrella and that Trustees just need to review it. Sam and Holly have been reviewing. It’s on Monday’s agenda for the city to look at. • Presented budget to city council and mayor on 1/20. City administration has recommended that staff position that was approved will not come to fruition. Though we’re not getting a new staff member, other parts of the budget shouldn’t be cut. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Meyer asked if we were seeing this with other libraries. Mitchel responded that this is also something common with other libraries in the area. ○ Meyer asked if we were afraid of losing existing staff. Mitchel responded that this wasn’t the expectation. ○ Wiser asked if the position may be added later if there is the budget. Mitchel responded that if we want that position in the future, we’d have to ask for the position at a new time. ○ Wiser asked if anything else had the potential for being cut. Mitchel responded that no, the city hasn’t asked to cut any more of the budget. • Staff and their families had a pot luck. • There was also recently an Employee Recognition luncheon. Shelly Clay was recognized for 25 years of service.

Committee Reports (Evaluation, Finance, Marketing, Policy,

Topic	Discussion
Staffing, etc.)
Friends of the Library	Fujinaka reported that the group has changed a bit in recent meetings. They've talked about projects they want to move forward with, including a vehicle for the library. At one point, Karl Chevrolet proposed the idea of donating a used vehicle they would let the library use. the group decided against this option at the time, but they are researching funding options in case this does come up in the future. The Friends had also discussed other large fundraising projects such as a remote kiosk. Realization that a vehicle would be needed prior in order to maintain the kiosk warranted more information before Director and Friends can move forward. Sam is working with the Friends to ensure proper procedures and planning are adhered to without curbing their enthusiasm. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wisner brought up that the Friends had wanted us to prioritize the asks. He wondered if the Friends needed anything additional from us to help them when they make asks (like with the vehicle). Mitchel responded that he was planning to present information at March meeting and he plans to restate that we need to wait until it is actually a need. Before we make this decision, financing, insurance, and other considerations would have to be discussed. • Stephenson asked if this was the right time to set deadlines on issues like this given the recent budget discussions. Mitchel responded that no – there is nothing that warrants us to require getting a library vehicle at the present moment without due diligence. Trivia night is coming up in March.
Old Business
New Business	Upcoming Trustee vacancies. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meyer knows that there are a few individuals leaving the board in June – what is the process to fill those positions. Meyer asked if we could onboard new trustees sooner than June so that we could cross-train. Mitchel said they wouldn't do any early appointments. However, we could start reaching out to candidates early and encourage them to come to meetings. Library Accreditation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This is the accreditation for the library itself. This document discusses if the library is doing what it needs to do to meet benchmarks. This document has been signed off on by Mitchel and Wisner. • Mitchel wanted to discuss the city ordinance in regards to the accreditation document. He wondered if we needed to review the document to ensure that trustees and city administration/elected officials understand each other's roles and responsibilities. With current discussions of meeting room policy and previous discussions of fines/fees information. Specifically, this is part of 21.05, bullet 2. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Meyer and Stephenson questioned what was considered part of the "library building". The thought was that perhaps the City Council Chambers aren't part of the library, but maybe the meeting rooms are. Mitchel reached out to the state library central District Rep to see if they'd come out to talk about that point in the accreditation document, specifically the rules and responsibilities of the Trustees vs. city vs. Library Director. Meyer asked that if the room responsibilities turn over to the city, does that mean

Topic	Discussion
	finances/budget need to be rediscussed, or would they restrict our access to certain amenities. When the District Rep comes to talk to us, we will invite city council members. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wiser wanted to thank the staff for recent efforts. They are always accommodating and professional. • Wiser invited the rest of the Trustees to compete in the Friends of the Library trivia night. • Wiser asked if there was anything Mitchel needed from the Trustees regarding state lobbyists/state representatives. Mitchel responded that we are all invited but are not required. • Meyer asked about recent legislation for school libraries pulling certain books. Mitchel hasn't heard of this type of legislation for any other state.
Adjourn	Next meeting: March 16, 2023 Stephenson Moved to adjourn. Meyer seconded. All in favor.

Respectfully submitted, Miranda Piepho, Secretary

- Polaris LEAP, which allows us to access our ILS through any device like a laptop or tablet instead of only the staff computers, is up and going. This means we can create cards, update registrations, renew items, and more while on the go at farmer's markets and other outreach events!
- We've set Paypal up and hope that in the near future we will be able to accept payment for fines online.
- We posted an application for the summer library intern in January which closed in February. Out of 40 candidates we have narrowed it down to 4 to interview and are completing those interviews in February and March.
- Holly and I represented the library during a literacy night event at Rock Creek Elementary on February 23rd. There were 137 kids and we made over 150 buttons!
- Our busiest day was the 20th with 1,236 visitors.
- We had 29 volunteers help us for 190.5 hours in February.

Public Services Summary: (written by Holly Sealine)

Accomplishments:

- By the end of February, have a revised room rental policy approved by City Council and ready for review at the next board meeting.
- By the end of February, have a plan in place including meeting with Justin for adult programming and expectations (written down). I would like to see us have more of a presence during programs (not all, but more than we do).
- Opened a PayPal account as a step forward for accepting online payments for room rentals. Working with Library Market to connect ecommerce to simplify the process even more.
- Worked with Beth to investigate implementing online payments via PayPal for fines and fees. Still in-progress, but the ball is rolling 😊
- Completed summer intern interviews and have submitted a conditional offer

Upcoming Goals:

- By the end of March, review job descriptions for FT staff at the library and send it over to HR for review.
- By the end of March, catch up on staff reviews including modifying the review form and adding a new self-evaluation form that aligns with job descriptions better.
- By end of April, create the AV and Information packets for room rentals. Also have the black cabinet organized and labeled in hallway near catering closet.
- By the April Board meeting, review the marketing and communications plan, previously approved by the Board of Trustees in 2019. Figure out how we can ensure the plan is being properly implemented.
- By the end of March, implement ecommerce through Library Market for room rentals
- By the end of April, review library's website and see what changes might need to be made or what should be added/moved around to make the website user friendly and accessible to patrons and staff alike.

Youth Services Update: (written by Kelly Munter & Brittany Burk)

February Highlights:

Summary

Our program numbers remain fairly normal despite the cold weather outside. We've seen a slight dip mid-February, but that's to be expected with the weather and sickness. We were bummed that bad weather forced us to cancel our Pizza, PJs, Puzzles & Games program, but we hope to reschedule this spring!

Book Bites with local author visit

Susan Gentz, author of EWWWW!, was here to read the book she wrote with her son, and answer questions for us. We also had a blast reading the kids new picture books and "bites" out of new chapter books too!

Friday Flicks & Sips

We showed Frozen 2 this month – very fitting since it's cold outside and we JUST found out there is going to be a Frozen 3! Coffee was once again provided by Porchlight, and it was delicious!

Maker Crew

We played with Perler Beads this month! The kids had so much fun making lots of random creations.

Family Bingo for Books

Family Bingo for Books is still a hit! 70 participants joined us. The FRIENDS gave us vouchers for adults to select a book from Novel Findings when they win. Participants loved this option.

Upcoming Goals:

Our biggest goal is to continue planning spring programs including spring break, and keep working on the summer library program.

- Finalize the April calendar
- Work on new partnership opportunities with Uptown Ankeny, Ankeny Real Estate Group, and Passions Studios
- Spring Break plans & Mario Escape Rooms
- Mario Party
- Summer Library Program (getting the staff and Friends t-shirts ordered, logo finalized, test Beanstack app, finalize calendars and programs, book the finale pool party, plan the in-house programs, continue to work with communications on the video and log portion, and much, much more...)

Teen Services Update: (written by Amanda Bellis)

February Highlights:

Cookie Decorating

Teen (and tween) programs were very well attended this month, which I was happy to see. 17 teens attended Cookie Decorating and had a blast. I'm grateful to Hy-Vee for donating cookies, frosting, and sprinkles for that program. Though everyone had access to the same ingredients, the resulting cookies varied quite a bit. I love programs where I get to see creativity at work!

Another creative program this month was Button Making, which had 11 attendees. I'm thrilled to be seeing consistent double-digit attendance at teen events!

Tween Time

Both Tween Time programs were quite full this month too, with 14 at DIY Snow and 15 at 3D Printer Pens. The latter program actually had a waitlist, but I was unable to open it to more people due to our limited number of pens. Sadly, 3 of our pens have bit the dust and will need to be replaced; it would also be nice to purchase even a few more (maybe bringing us up to 20 total) so that a 3D printer pen program could have more open spots and I wouldn't have to turn anyone away.

With larger numbers at Tween Time, we will need 2 adults available to assist with the management and help participants during these programs. I will work with Brittany/Kelly to collaborate on times as well as see if Beth knows of any library volunteers that might want to help as a program assistant.

TAG

I had a few new faces at TAG this month; some were invited by friends and others happened to see the flier and were intrigued. I'm still trying to find a good format for that program that makes the best use of everyone's time. When attendance varies from month to month, I don't always get the feedback and engagement I'm hoping for, but I also know how busy everyone is and I don't want to institute a mandatory attendance rule. I would love to have projects available each month for attendees to help with (in keeping with earning volunteer hours for TAG attendance), so I'm going to try checking with staff in the week leading up to TAG to see if there's anything the group can assist with.

Makerspace

Beyond programming, there's been plenty of Makerspace work this month as well. I updated all of the signs for each station in the Makerspace itself, so they look better and include important information. I also set up some Makerspace advertising on the white board outside the door, which I hope will be eye-catching and will help to market the space.

Upcoming Goals:

- Create placeholder events on the calendar for summer events. While some of my ideas are still a bit malleable, I have enough of a schedule in place to claim the rooms and times.
- Determine the best schedule for posting events to Facebook. From what I can tell, Facebook has made a change that prevents creating events in draft form; this means that events are live the moment I create them, which messes with my previous schedule of creating drafts for a whole season of programs and then publishing them when registration opens. Since I usually have a handful of participants who find out about events via Facebook (or their parents do), I want to keep putting my events on Facebook, but I want to figure out the best way to do that.

Adult Services Update: (written by Justin Armbruster)

February Highlights:

In February, we hosted a very well-received virtual program, The History of Hershey Chocolate Company presented by Laura Keyes. Thirty-one people registered for the program. Typically, with virtual programs that require registration, only about half end up “attending” the program. However, this program had twenty-seven attendees, which is over 87% of the registration count. The program was quite engaging and I think the participants not only learned about a unique piece of history, but were thoroughly entertained, as well. I also attended a virtual meeting that discussed all the books considered for the All Iowa Reads program. This was very insightful, as it provided some ideas for possible book discussions at the library.

Next month, we will begin hosting more sessions of our Craft & Chat program. In addition to meeting on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month in the afternoon, we will offer an evening meeting on each Monday. We were approached by a community member who is part of the Central Iowa Fiber Artists, as they had been meeting at the library and wanted to know if we would like to partner with them. I’m hoping this will help boost our program attendance numbers, while also creating a new library partnership. In addition, we have had the second most checkouts in the BRIDGES consortium for the last couple of months. In February, we seemed to really pull away from our closest competition, as we had more than 600 checkouts than the library in third place

Upcoming Goals:

- A goal is to continue to increase our checkout numbers by closely monitoring our requests, hold lists and titles recommended on the BRIDGES website.
- Complete another makerspace training video for our vinyl and cassette conversion station.
- Continue the planning process for summer library program events and resources

Acquisitions/Cataloging Report – February 2023

February marks the beginning of awards seasons both in print and AV. These awards increase demand in all media, impacting selection decisions and hold lists at the library. Examples of print awards already announced include the ALA Children's Awards such as the Newbery and the Caldecott. AV awards include the Grammys and the Oscars.

There are also local Iowa awards that the library purchases for various grade levels. These include the Iowa High School Literature award and the Goldfinch Award.

Ankeny, Iowa

The Mission of the Ankeny Kirkendall Public Library

To be a welcoming and inclusive community center of learning experiences and entertainment, interaction, and connection

SUBJECT: FINES AND FEES

BACKGROUND: The Library charges fines to encourage compliance with rules for the return of materials that promote fair and equal access to limited resources.

POLICY: The Library Board of Trustees has established procedures for handling materials that are overdue, lost, or damaged. These procedures also establish methods of retrieval for overdue materials, interlibrary loan materials and equipment.

The Library does not generally charge for the use or loan of materials it owns or for the use of library services. The Library Board of Trustees has, however, established exceptions to the policy for the following: use of meeting rooms; copying; replacement of a lost patron card; printing; equipment use; lost or damaged materials. The Board may establish other charges as it determines to be necessary.

weeks overdue. A third notice will be sent out at 4 weeks. A final lost notice will be sent out at 6 weeks. The accrual of fines will be stopped at this time and the patron will be charged the cost to replace the items.

6. Fines are stopped on the date the overdue item is returned.

B. Concealment of Materials:

The law of the State of Iowa provides that the fact that a person fails to return library materials for 2 months after the date the person agreed to return the materials is evidence of intent to deprive the library of its property, provided a reasonable attempt has been made to reclaim the materials. ~~Under these circumstances the Library may elect to send delinquent accounts with fines at least $50 to collections. – Do the fines include late fees, processing fees, etc. or just replacement costs?~~

C. Overdue Interlibrary Loan Books:

Interlibrary Loan (ILL) materials check out for the period allowed by the lending library. The Library staff shall attempt to notify the patron by telephone or email 3-6 days after an ILL book is due. Any late fees assessed by the lending library will be charged to the patron. Charges for lost or damaged ILL materials will be determined by the lending library and charged to the patron.

ANKENY KIRKENDALL PUBLIC LIBRARY
Ankeny, Iowa

The Mission of the Ankeny Kirkendall Public Library
To be a welcoming and inclusive community center of learning experiences and entertainment, interaction and connection

SUBJECT: Friends of the Library

BACKGROUND: The Library supplements its annually-approved operating budget with funds raised by the Friends of the Ankeny Public Library, a 501(c)(3) tax exempt corporation. .

POLICY:

The Board of Library Trustees of the Ankeny Kirkendall Public Library recognizes the Friends of the Ankeny Public Library as a vital source of support and encouragement for the aims and purposes of the Library and wishes to maintain a close, cooperative and harmonious relationship.

~~The Board of Library Trustees acknowledges that the Friends of the Library is an organization separate and apart from the Ankeny Kirkendall Public Library, and that the Friends of the Library has its own Board and its own goals and purposes.~~

The roles of trustees, the Library Director, and Friends are related but distinct and neither the Friends of the Library as an organization nor any member or participant thereof may assume any liability or take or authorize any act on behalf of the Ankeny Kirkendall Public Library. Trustees represent citizen control and governance of the library. The Library Director represents the administration and management of the Library. Friends of the Library represent citizen participation and assistance to the Library.

~~Friends of the Ankeny Public Library is distinct and separate from the Ankeny Kirkendall Public Library.~~

Because Friends of the Ankeny Public Library is an organization comprised solely of volunteers distinct and separate from Library personnel, no Library personnel shall perform any duty or take any act on behalf of the Friends of the Library, except Library staff members may act in an advisory capacity or volunteer for Friends activities.

Donated materials or those weeded removed from the Library's collection will be given to Friends via an annual consignment agreement.

Friends' funds and Library funds shall not be commingled or integrated, except that gifts from Friends may be accepted by the Library, whereupon said gifts shall become solely the funds of the Library but shall be expended for the specific purpose for which the gift or donation has been made by the Friends. In the event the Ankeny Kirkendall Public Library becomes the custodian of any Friends funds, those funds shall be kept as separate "funds" for audit and bookkeeping purposes.

???Do we need to add something about the Library Staff collection of Funds for items sold at the book sale, or distribution of Friends gifts to donors? Having a transparent system of funds collected, items sold, and items distributed might be beneficial to both groups.

The Library Director, or a designated representative, and two Library Trustees are to serve as the principal liaisons to the Friends of the Library Board of Directors. It is the responsibility of the Library Director to ensure that no funding request submitted by a Library employee to the Friends of the Library is in conflict with the Board of Trustee's policy or management decisions.

Cooperative projects for the benefit of the library are encouraged. Such cooperative projects should be reviewed or nominated by the Library Director in consultation with the Friends Board of Directors, and/or authorized representatives, for their appropriateness in meeting current need and practicality. The Director ensures that all projects conform to the policies and philosophies of the Board of Trustees.

Library staff shall provide the Friends with a detailed report annually describing the use of monetary donations made by the Friends over the previous year.

In the event of the dissolution of the Friends of the Ankeny Public Library, its assets will be distributed to the Ankeny Kirkendall Public Library for the exclusive purpose of the needs of the library.
