THE POSITION

The City of Ankeny, Iowa, continuously recognized as the fastest growing city in the Midwest by the U.S. Census Bureau, is seeking a values-driven leader to serve as the Assistant to the City Manager. Under the direction of the City Manager, the Assistant to the City Manager will: assist the City Manager and senior management team in daily operations of the Office of City Manager; perform administrative coordination and research activities in the preparation and administration of the city budget, capital improvements program, grant assistance programs and policy development; manage special projects as assigned; and perform related duties as required.

ORGANIZATION/STRUCTURE

The City of Ankeny is governed by a Mayor and a five member Council. All are elected at large and serve a four-year term. The City Manager is the Chief Administrative Officer and is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the City including, hiring and managing department directors and other members of the management team.

The City provides a typical range of municipal services including: Economic Development, Fire, Library Services, Community Development, Administration, Parks & Recreation (including a golf course and two aquatic centers), Police, Public Works and Municipal Utilities. The Ankeny Regional Airport is operated by the Polk County Aviation Authority, which is staffed by the City.

The City's taxable valuation continues to grow and now totals over $4 billion. The City's total expenditure budget for FY 2020-2021 is $145 million.

While the City has 283 full-time equivalent employees, the number grows to more than 600 during the summer with the addition of various seasonal programs.

The City has three bargaining units: Teamsters (Police), IAFF (Fire), and the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME).
COMMUNITY

Ankeny is a rapidly growing suburb located just north of Des Moines, Iowa’s capital city. With a growing population of 70,000, Ankeny covers approximately 33 square miles and offers an outstanding quality of life, with a variety of cultural and recreational opportunities. Being part of the greater Des Moines area, Ankeny offers big city amenities with the hometown feel of a smaller city.

Ankeny was recently ranked one of the Top 100 Places to Live by Money magazine, Bloomberg BusinessWeek’s Best Places to Raise Kids, Family Circle magazine’s Top 10 Best Towns for Families and designated a Playful City USA community by KaBOOM!

In the 2018 biennial citizen survey, more than 97 percent of residents rated Ankeny as an excellent or good place to live. Additionally, residents ranked the City high for its overall image and for being a good place to raise a family. Ranked the safest city in Iowa with a population of 20,000+ by Safewise, it’s no surprise Ankeny is also rated highly by its citizens for being a safe place to live.
